

Adjunct Faculty: Environmental Economics (Ref: ADJ-EE)

Summary: Queens University of Charlotte invites applications for an adjunct faculty instructor position in the Department of Environmental Science and Chemistry to teach one section of ENV 245 Environmental Economics in the fall, 2018 semester.

Experience, Knowledge and Skills Required

Candidates must have at least 12 graduate hours in Economics or a related discipline; a master's or Ph.D. degree in Economics or a related discipline is preferred. Ideal candidates will have excellent oral communication skills, evidence of high-quality teaching effectiveness in undergraduate teaching, and experience teaching introductory Economics.

Essential Duties and Responsibilities

Primary teaching responsibilities will include teaching one on-campus section of ENV 245 in the College of Arts and Sciences, including delivery of introductory Environmental Economics concepts and skills to students, being available to students during office hours and via electronic communication, and assessment of student performance. A successful candidate should have a passion for teaching, the ability to work with both traditional and adult students, and the ability to connect with students at all levels of proficiency.

Application Process

Qualified candidates should submit via email to hr@queens.edu the following

- (1) a letter of interest,
- (2) current resume or curriculum vitae,
- (3) contact information for 3 professional references

Be sure to include “REF: ADJ-EE” and YOUR NAME in your email subject line.
(Example: REF: ADJ-EE Robin Smith)

Queens values campus diversity and demonstrates this in campus initiatives; we particularly encourage members of historically under-represented groups to apply.

Only candidates who best match the requirements of job will be contacted. The position will be removed from the website once an offer is extended and accepted, or when a sufficient candidate pool is identified. Due to limited staff resources, phone calls cannot be accepted or returned.
