The biggest news this issue is the marriage of Ann-Lee Davis
to Charlie Martin on January 11, 2003 in Richmond. The bride was radiant (as were her delighted children, Devon and Lizzie) and the groom was ecstatic (as well he should be – getting to marry a Booty Queen.) Linda Cable Shute played the organ
for the ceremony and performed a beautiful duet with violin. The music was so gorgeous, I cried before Ann-Lee even came down the aisle! Also in proud attendance were Sally Stapleton and Elise Echols Poole and husband Rick. It was a beautiful weekend and we all had a great time. Ann-Lee is also the new president of the Association of Firearm and Tool Mark Examiners and gave the presidential message at their annual banquet on May 29, 2003. Are we impressed or what!

The annual Booty Queen Spring
Fling at Folly Beach in April 2003 welcomed a new member this year – Laurie Warren Crane all the way from Mobile, Alabama.
Laurie, of course, has not changed one iota since her freshman year at Queens and had no trouble fitting in immediately. The entire group pictured to the right (Laurie, Ann Marie Kaiser
Forsberg, Jane Blue
Pressley, Sally Stapleton,
Ann-Lee Davis, Elise Echols
Poole, Leslie Allsopp, Mary Williams, Sharon Baxley and Elizabeth Pearce) scored a personal best by staying in our pajamas until at least 1pm each day. Once we were dressed, fun-loving Sally brought great joy to Laurie and the rest of the group with her remote-control “farting” device and forensics expert Ann-Lee taught all of us how to defend ourselves with big forks.
Worth remembering – cheese-flavored popcorn will stain your pajamas if you sleep with it.
Personally, I would like to thank everyone for being tolerant of the weird way that I eat corn on the cob. Truly an educational experience for everyone (although Linda Cable Shute and Debbie Arledge Seyle were much missed!)

Colleen Turnage reports that she is one course away from getting her master’s degree and should be finished by August.

Susan Wood Henderson and family are considering moving to Dallas where husband Dan is now working. Susan hasn’t house-hunted yet but son Greg has already been accepted at an area high school. Oldest daughter Katie is studying art history in Italy and will do a summer internship in London.
Second daughter Lisa is headed for SMU this fall. Susan mourns the end of paddle tennis season
but will be gearing up for it again this winter.

Ann Phillips is headed for Topsail this summer to recuperate after finishing her second year of seminary and to work on her next play.

(L-R): Elizabeth Pearce, Laurie Warren Crane, Elise Echols Poole, Sally Stapleton, Ann Marie Kaiser Forsberg, Leslie Allsopp, Jane Blue Pressley, Mary Williams (w/ Chia) and Ann-Lee Davis (Up Front)

Linda Cable Shute accompanied the Chandler Seminary Choraliers in the US premiere of “Mass Honoring St. Cecelia” by Kristina Vasiliaukaite. Two more of Linda’s anthems have also been published: “God’s Son to Whom the Heaven’s Bow” and “Stir Up Your Power.”

Betsy Caldwell, Gayle Mackie,
Gay Henry, Suzanne Ingram
(all class of ‘75) and Sally Stapleton were on hand to celebrate fellow ‘75 alum Nan Perry’s 50th birthday and to shag the night away to Nan’s favorite beach music songs. As usual Miss Sally outlasted everyone!

Ann Watkins Long caught up with Hannah Raymer Hearn in Albemarle and reports that they had a three-hour lunch with NO martinis! Ann is also leading a Girl Scout sailing trip in the Bahamas this summer and is pleased to announce that her daughter Rhys is graduating from vet school and will be doing clinical rotation in New Zealand. Son Skip is doing
post-grad in acting at Naropa Institute of Theatre in Boulder.
Anne shot her first deer last December, actually a mercy-killing because the deer had a broken leg. She managed to load it in her truck by herself and then get a hunting license so that she could legally give the carcass to a neighbor who liked venison. Only somebody living in the country could have a story like this.

Animal lover Libby Jones has added a cat named Punkin to go with her horse and dog and is contemplating a horseback excusion in Colorado with friends.

Marilu Hickey Novy’s dog
Magic became a champion one week after his first birthday and,
along with Marilu’s certified therapy dog Mandy, is working toward a title in agility. On the business front, Marilu’s needlecraft shop relocated in February and she swears she’s never doing that again. Marilu also reported that Chris Phillips
Hart has moved back to Columbus from Germany via Texas and is working full-time at The Threaded Needle with Marilu (and driving Marilu crazy according to Chris.)

Lyn Waskiewicz Menne and Lou Ann Walker Matthews
got together last fall when Lou Ann’s daughter was going through rush at UGA.
Unfortunately for these two ADPi alums, Lane opted for Phi Mu. Lyn’s daughter Logan has decided to graduate from high school a year early and has sent her parents scrambling. She’s looking at Florida schools (be careful, Lyn, Chi O is awfully big down there.)

Lynn Harris Worthington is college hunting with daughter Leigh, when she’s not working at Immaculata School and tending to their innumerable pets.

I received a lovely family picture from Kathy Haley Herman of son Cullen and daughter Caroline, who's the spittin' image of her mom.

And speaking of replicating yourself, Grace Bullock Counts' daughter Sara looks like her twin. Hard to believe but the Counts family has three kids in college.

Frances Doe Dozier has a couple in college as well. Vaughan is a senior at Presbyterian, and Julie is a junior at TCU. Laura graduates from high school this year, and Emily just got her driver's license. Frances got to know her doctors well this year, having a cancerous thyroid and a malignant melanoma both removed. She's doing much better and considers her time in the hospital "restful." I had melanoma in my early 30s and Polly Robinson Addison had a bout of it this year too. Maybe it's the hole in the ozone layer, but I really recommend having your moles checked by an expert every year.

Martha Mitchell Aiken, husband Joey, daughter Berkley and son Mitch were in Bangkok earlier this year for the World Boy Scout Jamboree, along with 30,000 scouts from all around the world. They are hoping to go again in 4 years when the Jamboree is in the U.K.

Julie King, who's been in Carmel, CA since 1976, has probably had the most interesting professional journey of anyone in our class. Along the way she was a mime in Boulder CO for a year, a chef in Atlanta, a professional psychic and spiritual counselor, a radio host and an author. These days she is the co-owner of a publishing company called Merrill-West Publishing and a partner in Rota Productions, a marketing and production company. She still co-hosts two radio shows, In the Company of Angels and The YW Women's Hour.

Cynthia Cauthen Sanders loves her work in the hospice unit at Presbyterian Hospital in Charlotte and also finds time to volunteer as a nurse for a week in July at a camp for the mentally handicapped. In the past year, she and her family managed trips to the Outer Banks, Maine and Maggie Valley.

Actress/producer Liza Vann Smith finished shooting her latest film, A Circle on the Cross, in September and is waiting for the director's cut.

Donna Catoe Hurtak and husband Jerome are still practicing law in the Miami area and keeping up with two daughters, ages 11 and 14. Oldest daughter Mary Elizabeth passes the 8th grade milestone this year and will begin high school in the fall. Summertime gives them a welcome break from Miami temps when they spend a long stretch in North Carolina, near Hiawassee, GA Public apologies for failing to send in notes in the past when Donna has written me at least 2 letters!

Best wishes to Laura Grant Dillard! She was married to Robert, who is a professor of pediatrics at the Wake Forest University Bowman Gray School of Medicine and the Medical Director of the Neonatal Intensive Care Unit at the Sara Lee Center for Women's Health at Forsyth Medical Center. They were married in March and continue to reside at the same address in Winston-Salem, NC.

Mary Beth Nichols Williams and husband Jim have made a move to the country where they have settled with their family in Ball Ground, GA. Eldest son James has participated in joint enrollment at Kennesaw this year and will be attending UGA in the fall. Virginia, a 10th grader this fall, and youngest son Joey, a 3rd grader this fall, still attend the Christian school they attended prior to their move to the country. Jim has more studio space, and Mary Beth has been enjoying taking a class from him.

To all those who came to our 25th reunion, thank you! It was a blast! We all looked great, just as we did twenty-five years ago. Of course the years have added to our wisdom, intelligence, humor, maturity and inner beauty. To all of you who did not come, we missed you. Where were you Robyn, Harriett, Suzanne, Anne and Penny? We heard you were coming. The Friday night class party was lovely. Thanks to Susan McEwen for opening up her beautiful home for dinner. We were so busy conversing and getting reacquainted we hardly ate.

Our class meeting on Saturday caught us up on everyone's lives. Once again Joanne Macauley Corsbie was unanimously voted to be our president. Joanne, we can't do it without you!

Speaking of Joanne, she and hubby Chris are celebrating their tenth anniversary this year living in Asheboro, NC. She is so excited, especially after a major medical scare with Chris in Fall 2002. With many prayers and much faith it turned into a miraculous recovery. Joanne is still teaching first grade and loving it. Daughter Helen is 20 now and is attending NC State University. Maggie is in high school and actively involved in soccer and volleyball. Joanne heard from Holly

Strawn Riley who has been living in McDonough, GA for 17 years in a 100-year-old house. She says hello to everyone and wanted to come but had a prior commitment.

Ethel Canon Allison is still in Charlotte and happily married for 16 years. Her career keeps her working hard and she enjoys singing with the Oratorio Singers of Charlotte in her spare time. Her dad died about 10 years ago and her mom is living in Montreat, NC. She occasionally hears from Julie Engler Miles in Denver, CO with her middle school boys. Ethel had hoped that Julie would come, as we all did, but Julie has so much going on and the timing wasn't good.

Kathy Haug Simmons and her husband Ken are in Columbia with their two sons, 10 and 14 years old. Between her husband, sons and two beloved and precious dogs, Kathy spends much time taking care of aging family members. Caroline reports that Kathy has a gorgeous home on the lake.

Carey Atwater lives in a new home in Atlanta with her 3 cats. Her family is near and she spends many precious moments with her two nephews. She is a cook at a golf club and has a catering business on the side. She looks great, is so kind and funny and seems to be coping well with her health problems.

Jill Langford Dame is in Jacksonville, FL with her husband and 10-year-old twins. She has retired from law and teaching but continues to serve as president of three nonprofit organizations. She also plays on five different tennis teams. We are so thankful she took time from her busy schedule to come.

Joan Arnold Hearn is in Charlotte and is doing great. She is in the process of buying a house for herself and her sons, ages 10 and 12. She is working in the office where her sons are in school in addition to some personal accounting services at home.

It was a nice surprise to see Lynn Pollock Holloway who now resides in Maryland with her husband Greg and her 17 year old son, who is an avid golfer. She and hubby together own three different accounting and consulting firms. While in Charlotte she visited with Becky Robbins who is also in Charlotte. She reports that Becky is doing great and just recently won a prestigious national sales award.

Linda Lawrence Sizer and hubby Bill are in Nashville. Bill works for the state, and Linda is currently enjoying being a mom to 6-year-old Bennett. They adopted Bennett from Russia several years ago, and he is doing great. He loves doing anything having to do with numbers. Unfortunately, Linda lost her dad in 1998 and her mother in 2000. She still likes to occasionally have some antique mall booths for fun.

Ellis Newton Ellis and husband Bubba are in Tampa celebrating 15 years of marriage. They enjoy living with their two beagles and spending time on their boat. Ellis stays busy with her two part time jobs in real estate and stocks and a decorating and painting company. Sadly, Ellis lost her mother in 2000 and her beloved father last February. Her father was a wonderful and devoted Presbyterian minister.

Susan Quinn Wade is in Charlotte teaching 4 and 5 year olds. Her 3 girls, one in high school and 2 in college, keep her busy with a myriad of social and school schedules. Susan says she feels like "Queens own Mother Theresa."

Kyle Hendricks Levin and husband Johnny are in Charlotte and celebrating 21 years of marriage. They spend a lot of time on the ball field with their 2 sons Zach and Matt. Kyle is also owner of Harvest Foods, a company she started several years ago. Way to go Kyle! Kyle sadly reports that her dad passed away in May of 2002.

Besides having a beautiful home and 2 great kids, Susan McEwen stays busy running all areas of Information Technology for McEwen Industries. Her son Stan is in the 11th grade and is an outstanding baseball player. Daughter Elizabeth is in the 9th grade and loves playing softball. Susan's new home is only a few blocks away from Queens.

Genie Thomas Morgan is in Sanford, NC and celebrating 22 years of marriage with husband Steve. After many years of homemaking, she went back to teaching 2nd grade 3 years ago. She says that teaching has really changed. Their 3 children, Scott – 10th grade, Stephanie – 8th grade and Samantha – 2nd grade, keep her constantly on the run from marching band and art to many other activities. We were very glad to hear that her parents in Lancaster, SC are doing fine.

Caroline FitzSimons Matthews and husband Steve are in Columbia, SC and celebrating 15 years of marriage. Caroline is busy at home with son Phillip, 14, and daughters Natalie, 12, and precious little Caroline who is 6. In her spare time she is constantly involved in volunteer activities from law, charity, school and church. She has decided her major in college should have been a BA in "meetings and parties."

We were pleased to have Rosa Wall Sansbury, Amy McManus Morgan, Louise Brice Shuford and Janet Preyer Nelson '77 also attend our class party. Rosa and husband Roy are in Van Wyck, SC where Rosa owns her own business, Equestrian. Amy McManus is in Charlotte and recently left teaching to work at the Hezekiah Museum. Louise Brice Schuford is in Charlotte with her husband and three children.

It was good to see Carla Jeffords Vitez and her husband Larry who came to the barbeque. She and her husband live in Charlotte and last fall Carla was named to the Seventh Annual Charlotte Observer's Guardians of the Environment – or, "those Carolinians who are working to preserve our precious natural heritage." She took an interest in the nature trail at Selwyn Elementary, which has a rare diversity within its boundaries, and helped restore much of the trail, secured grants, educated other volunteers and organized educational programs and festivals. Environmentalists say Carla's work to develop the nature trail and expand understanding of the environment have been a model for the region. Congratulations, Carla – we are proud of the work you've done!

Penny Pennington O'Callaghan is still in Atlanta with her son and daughter, who by the way looks identical to Penny. Most of you know her husband passed away suddenly about 5 years ago, and though it has been hard on Penny she seems to be doing well. Penny is also extremely active with the Queens alumni in Atlanta and recently attended a party at the home of Aileen Ponder Hatcher '71, who lives in Atlanta.

Lori Anderson writes that she is moving from Savannah to Kansas City, MO and would love to hear from you. She has two girls.

Susan Ellsworth Wiggs called from Maryland to say "Hi!" to everyone.

Susan Erwin Snipes and husband Ben are in Lancaster, SC. They stay busy with their careers, their many dogs, church and family responsibilities. Susan had some surgery a few months ago but is now doing fine. Sadly, she lost her mother in the winter of 2002, and it has been difficult.

Suzanne Brice Crawford is in New Bern, NC and still teaching. Word has it that she wanted to come but her father-in-law was ill. We hope he is doing better and that we will hear from Suzanne soon.

Reunion Class of 1982

As for myself, Carol Cooper Kingsmore, I am in Charlotte with my husband Robert and 11-year-old daughter Kathryn – who is, by the way, 11 going on 21. She is a sweet girl and a great student and soccer player. We also have a 2-year-old oversized Yorkshire terrier that is loving but neurotic. My other beloved Yorkie died a few years ago, and I still miss him daily. I stay busy with a church prayer ministry, sports and school activities, and many things going on with family and close friends. On occasion I take on an interior design project, which lasts a month or so.

Thanks to the 2 men who bravely attended our all female reunion. Rosa's husband Roy was at the class party, and my husband Robert attended the barbeque. To the rest of you, you missed a wonderful weekend of fun, friendship and laughter. By the way, Joanne, Ethel wanted me to ask you if you remember all the orange barrels along the Charlotte streets and the "McDonald's man"?

Susan and I would like to let you know we have enjoyed the past 10 years as class reporters and are thrilled to be passing on this responsibility to Jill Langford Dame and Susan Quinn

Wade. We know they will do an exceptional job and promise to keep you updated and anxiously anticipating all of the latest news from the Queens class of 1978. So let them hear from you. (e-mail jldame@aol.com)

In closing, Susan, Joanne and I would like to thank our reunion committee: Joan, Kyle, Caroline, Kathy, Ethel, Anne and Penny for all their help. Everyone had a great time.

OK-class of 1979-notice that next year is our 25th class reunion. Start planning now to be there! I know personally I would love to see everyone there. Most of the news I've received came during Christmas.

Marie Merritt Echols stays busy with her children as well as her job as her school system's curriculum director.

Beth Hawfield is teaching kindergarten at Bruns Elementary in Charlotte and loves her kids.

I did talk with Davida Barwick Phillips this spring. She is living in Jessup, GA and teaches music.

Tamea Greer Price has taken classes that lead her into the consulting/speaking arena.

Congratulations to Robin Patric! She was married on December 12, 2002 in Aruba. Robin sent a wedding picture and the setting was beautiful.

Mary Evans wants folks to know that she has left the snow and skiing of Aspen for water-skiing and step mothering in Columbia, SC with her first and best boyfriend, soon to be her husband, Jeff Graydon. Some of us may remember Jeff from various functions at Queens.

Gay Rodgers continues to run her camp for girls. Beth Hooper Coffey and Jan Hooper have so far helped with camp enrollment. Gay now has a website for her camp at www.hameaufarm.com.

Kitty Dunn Bray's father Robert H. (Bobby) Dunn died July 9, 2002. Our sympathy goes out to Kitty's family.

Mandi Olsen Spainhour, Lois Coffey Rowland and I have had a couple of sailing adventures on the high sea (well, actually Lake Norman). Our first adventure was in November – quite a chilly weekend. You haven't seen glamorous Queens women until you have seen three women all wrapped up and sleeping on a sailboat in 30 degree weather. We also got together in early May – a much warmer weekend.

As I always mention in my notes, I would love to hear from you. Looking forward to seeing you at the reunion next year!

A small but mighty group met for the Class of 1982's 21st Reunion: Teresa Goins Williams, Melissa Patrick Hauser, Crystal Rollins Lettow, Kim Schrum Calhoun, Tonya Wertz Orbaugh and Jennifer Louise Fischer (with sister Nancy) were all spotted at different events over the Reunion Weekend. It was a glorious spring weekend in Charlotte. Four of us showed up for the class meeting. We had fun reminiscing, but we miss our other classmates. The 25th reunion is in four years, and we hope to see more of you then!

Crystal Rollins Lettow is living in San Diego and will be married 20 years in September to Jeff Lettow, the pastor of First Baptist Lemon Grove. They have three children – Jarrett (16), Hope (13) and Ashlyn (8). Crystal recently left the stay-at-home mom scene to become the church office manager and tackle computers. She continues to be involved with music-solos and the church worship team. Sadly, Crystal recently lost her father, Reverend CB Rollins, Jr. He was a good, humble man who is missed dearly by his family, friends and community.

Melissa Patrick Hauser is living in King William, VA with her husband and three dogs. She recently celebrated 13 years of marriage to her husband, Jim and Melissa will celebrate 17 years with Anthem BCBS in September. She also recently obtained certification as Senior Professional Human Resources with the Society for HR Management. Melissa still enjoys music and mentors in the Richmond public schools with Virginia Heroes, which was founded by tennis legend Arthur Ashe.

Teresa Goins Williams is living in Indian Trail, NC and has been married to her husband Terry for 17 years. Their daughter Amanda is 13. Teresa has been working in the field of financial aid for 20 years and is currently the Financial Aid Director at Wingate University and the Vice President of the NC State Financial Aid Association. She plays keyboard and sings with the praise team at church.

Jennifer Louise Fischer has enjoyed her first year of living in Upstate NY in Newburgh. She enjoys the mountains, lakes, and most of the critters (except for the bears). Unlike the rest of this talented group, she does not sing (except in the shower) but does attend her local church. Jennifer is also going into her 8th year of working for Crate and Barrel. And she still enjoys a good road trip or vacation whenever she gets a chance. Last spotted in South Beach, Miami, FL (and at this reunion)!

You would think that after 20 years of being the reporter for our class that I would have this down to a science. Well, I don't. When we updated our computer at home, I lost all of the e-mail addresses I had for our class – so there went the e-mail train. For those of you who helped me pick up the pieces, a big THANKS. And to the rest of our class, please send me an updated e-mail address so I can include you in our next set of notes. (Special note to Mary Cozean, thank you for your note and your update; please send again because it was misplaced along with the others. Apologies!!!)

Mary Robinette recently started Occasional Photography which specializes in specialty portraits (corporate and private), nature and travel photography. She sold some photographs of the Bermuda Resort Pompano Beach Club and has received positive feedback on other photographs of the island. She also photographed the cover of a recipe book published for inspirational authors Bob and Debby Gass. She has photographed Bob several times and her photos appear in his publications. In addition, she has created a line of photographic stationery that she sells direct and is being stocked in Atlanta area stores. She is writing some travel articles to go along with her travel photography. Mary still has her corporate sales training business but is focusing on her photographic career. She says that the "starving artist" stuff is not all it is cracked up to be, but finds the photography business far more challenging and exciting than the training business.

Wendy Ingram Shelton and family are still in Fairhope, AL and busy renovating a 50 plus year old house. Her oldest boy James, 6, started school this year and Charlie, 5 will be a kindergartener next year. Wendy continues to teach preschool a few days a week and does a lot of volunteering at school, the library and church. She is also looking for your help – anybody know the whereabouts of classmate Alice Montgomery, please pass that along. Wendy would love to get in touch with her.

Helen Carpenter Gozer and her husband Mike have spent some time traveling. Mostly, they have gone back and forth to Los Angeles for work related purposes but they were able to spend a little vacation time in Hawaii. Helen says they had a great time. They went to Waikiki, Maui and the Big Island and hope to go back some day! Helen will be starting a new job in June with Wells Fargo. The position is Operations Analyst III, which means a little bit of everything – project management, user support, problem resolution, and testing and development rolled in for good measure. Congratulations on the new job and thanks for the e-mail!

Heidi Howell is now Heidi Howell Davis. She sent me a note over Christmas saying that she met these 3 guys (father with 2 sons) 2 years ago and married the oldest on November 30, 2002. While adjusting to her new family, Heidi is back working in the school system in Guilford County.

Thank you again for all the updates. I hope this finds everyone well and happy. Hope to hear from you again soon!

Hope everyone is doing well! Please take note of my email address above and then send me yours, so I can let you know to submit your news for our upcoming class notes. I have had a lot of email addresses returned lately, and I hate for you to miss an opportunity to share your news with our classmates. Save the date!! We will be having our next class reunion on April 23 and 24, 2004. Our class will be celebrating its 15th anniversary in a cluster group with the classes of '88 and '90. Look for the first mailing from the Alumni Office sometime this fall. I will also send out reunion news to my Class of '89 email list as I hear it.

Lots of congratulations to send out this issue to our classmates who have new additions to their families!

Congratulations also to Kathy King Briggs and her husband Chris who welcomed their third son Walker on October 8th. She says, "Life with 3 is hectic, but we're having a blast!"

Congratulations to Lori Wiseman Hallman and husband Drew on the birth of their second daughter Megan on September 30, 2002. Their older daughter Natalie will be 3 in August. Lori is still working at PricewaterhouseCoopers as the HR Manager for the Carolinas Audit Practice. Drew works as the manager of Content Development for a company called LearningStation. Drew and Lori are getting ready to move because they are growing out of the house with two children!

Congratulations to Amy Werner Lackens, husband Shawn and daughter Emma, who welcomed Jenna Elizabeth to their family on 9/6/02.

And congratulations to KJ Price Grissom and husband Ira who are expecting their third child on October 12th (KJ's birthday). Maggie (7) and Benjamin (4) are excited and love trying to guess what sex the baby will be. K.J. is still working in the interior design business and says she loves having the flexibility of working for herself, especially with the little ones underfoot! She also writes that moving to High Point has really been a positive move for her family and that they have settled in nicely. They miss Charlotte and the Queens area but visit often.

Congratulations to Becky Garrett Meyer and husband Jeff on the birth of their fourth child, daughter Jessica Rae, on September 9, 2002. Her sisters and brother are Samantha (11), Alexander (8) and Rachel (4).

Robin Bumgarner Roten has a full life with her husband Chris and 10-year-old daughter Josette in North Wilkesboro, NC. Robin is busy teaching at Wilkes Central High School and taking graduate classes at Gardner-Webb University. Chris recently started his own business, Appalachian Fire, specializing in fire extinguishers and safety equipment. Josette is enjoying school, but Robin reports that her "greatest passion" is dance, especially tap and ballet.

Congratulations to Mary Helen Allen Hutchinson and her husband David on the birth of their first child David "Knox" Hutchinson, Jr. on April 18, 2003. They are living and working as physicians in Greenville, NC.

Ginny Harlan Snell made a big move in March with her husband Michael and their children, Matthew (7), Emily (5) and Eric (2). Michael accepted a new position with NCR that required relocating to Maastricht in The Netherlands. Ginny writes that they are adjusting to the new lifestyle, traveling around the area and meeting a lot of interesting people through the international school.

Stephanie Kerns Kreuser and her husband Thomas moved to Montgomery, Alabama last summer. She says that she has loved my year in Alabama, and that they are moving again this summer up near Washington, DC. Thomas will be stationed at Andrews AFB, but they will live in VA. Stephanie is working her way through the SAGA (Smocking Arts Guild of America) Artisan Program and is just starting to teach some needlework classes.

Jennifer Martin Hall writes that she is still living in Concord, NC with her husband Tim and her daughters Melanie (4) and Beth (2) and two Shelties, Scout and Phoebe. Tim works for Bank of America. Jennifer says she is enjoying being a stay-at-home mom. They keep busy with frequent trips to the library and preschool for Melanie. Beth will be starting preschool in the fall. Jennifer and Tim still sing with their community chorus and recently participated in the chorus's spring show.

Linda Warren Gerdes writes that she will be moving to Key West in August, after several years in Fort Benning, GA. Ian will be scuba diving for the Army. She says that Karl (9) and Kaylan (6) are excited about living on an island.

Johnsye White is living in Pinehurst, NC and reports that she recently resigned from Village Design Group to open her own interior design studio. Business is going great, she says, and along with the interior design business, she has also started manufacturing designer pet beds ("all made right here in NC"). The name of the pet beds company is Phoenix Designs.

Liz Barbour is still living in Walton on Thames, England, which is just outside London. She teaches a Year 2 (first grade) class at Swansmere Infants School. Although she misses family and friends, she loves living in England and has no plans to move back to the US anytime in the near future.

And speaking of Liza, Liz Lightfoot Tucker is a home-maker and keeps busy with volunteering at school and at church. She also assists her husband, who is a realtor in Cabarrus County. Son Matthew will be a rising 4th grader and daughter Hannah a rising 1st grader. They are both very busy with sports and dance.

Wendy Bryant Diamond and her husband have bought a lot on the Marsh in Savannah and will be building by the end of this year. Wendy left the college level teaching position for a job at her daughter Olivia's preschool. She reports that the family is planning trips to Puerto Aventuras, Mexico and to Disney in December! Wendy reported that she enjoyed a recent visit with Kristen Hiller Metz in Jacksonville. Kristen and her husband have a one-year-old boy.

Erin Holleman still lives in Kennesaw, GA and has just celebrated her 5th year anniversary with Coca-Cola, where she is a Product Quality Specialist. Other anniversary news, John and Erin met soon after she moved to Atlanta and celebrated their five year dating anniversary recently. She is proud to share that in October of 2002, she completed the Avon Breast Cancer 3-Day charity walk from Lake Lanier to Piedmont Park in the Atlanta area. It was a 60-mile, 3-day event, for which she trained throughout the year.

Life is good in Texas, according to Margaret Aswad Young. She's living in Houston with her husband Michael. The two welcomed their first child in September; her name is Helen Margaret. Margaret is the Development Director for Neuhaus Education Center.

Kristin Wade is still living in Charlotte and recently bought a house in Plaza Midwood. She's now an Assistant Vice President at Carolinas Medical Center. Besides work, she stays busy with lots of volunteer work including Province Director for Alpha Delta Pi, Junior League, Habitat for Humanity, Reach Out and Read and Community Health Services.

We'd like to extend our sympathy to the family of classmate Caroline Hudson Hitchcock, who passed away this past year.

I'll be marking 10 years at the Charlotte Chamber this year and still work as their Group Vice President of Information Services. Michael and I will celebrate 12 years of marriage and Quincy's 7th birthday and Jack's 5th birthday in July. All's well!
