

Assistant Professor of Elementary Education – Tenure Track Position

SUMMARY: Queens University of Charlotte invites applications for a full-time elementary education faculty position in the Wayland H. Cato, Jr. School of Education beginning August 2010.

Teaching responsibilities will include courses in elementary education and other courses commensurate with expertise and experience. The successful candidate is expected to manage all daily operations, including managing school clinical placements for students, supervising clinical field work, and advising students. Other expectations are for the candidate to participate in professional organizations and in course, curriculum, and program development as well as university and community service activities.

Requirements/Qualifications:

Earned doctoral degree in education or related field. ABD or active enrollment in a doctoral program in education or related field will be considered. Candidates must demonstrate evidence of effective teaching, service and scholarship in subject areas within professional settings related to elementary education. The candidate must also hold or be able to obtain a valid North Carolina teaching license in the appropriate areas. Background experience literacy and educational technology will offer added value for applicant.

Application Process:

Candidates should submit via email to hr@queens.edu all of the following

- (1) a letter of interest,
- (2) current resume or curriculum vitae,
- (3) salary requirements or history, AND
- (4) contact information on three references.

Be sure to include YOUR NAME and “Ref: SOE-APEE” in your email subject line.

Queens values campus diversity and demonstrates this in campus initiatives; we particularly encourage members of historically under-represented groups to apply.

Only candidates who best match requirements of job will be contacted. The position will be removed from the website once an offer is extended and accepted. Due to limited staff resources, phone calls cannot be accepted or returned.
