The Class of 1990 will celebrate at Reunion 2004, April 23rd and 24th. The class will be part of a cluster reunion that will include the classes of 1988 and 1989. Don't miss any of the excitement!

Liz Barbour is still living in England on the outskirts of London teaching a class of six and seven-year-olds and loving it!

Sara Jenkins Collins has taken a job at Belk.

Lane Klotzberger Cutler and her husband, John, are living in Lower Downtown (LoDo) Denver, within walking distance of bars, restaurants and sports. She's become a hockey fan, and says she has a guest room if you're planning a trip west.

Wendi Bryant Diamond and family are in a temporary home while renovating their house. They have bought a lot on the marsh and plan to build in the near future! Olivia turned four in September, and Wendi and her husband, Josh, celebrated their ninth wedding anniversary in December with a trip to Disney World as a family! She is in her second year teaching at a pre-school in Savannah.

Kim Gravitte Greene and her husband, Chris, are back in Charlotte (Mint Hill actually) after a brief stay in Atlanta (Kennesaw actually). She's a full time mom to Patrick, four and a half, and Nicholas, 22 months.

Betsy Byron Kainer is living in Virginia Beach and has been for the past seven-plus years. She's married to John and has two wonderful children, Jack, who is two, and Gini, who is five-months. Betsy enjoys being a stay-at-home mom and does not miss her previous work of hotel and convention sales. She has once again picked up tennis after a 10-year reprieve and is loving it!

Elizabeth Alexander Klumpp and husband, Fred, are still residing right outside of Philadelphia in a town called Malvern. Both are working for the same medical publishing company and have been for many years. Elizabeth is the executive editor of two medical journals. Fred is the MIS for the company. They have three kids: Django (age six), Josie (age four), and Lucy (age one). They love living in Pennsylvania but sure miss Charlotte.

Blair Mauldin Stanford is still at the Chamber and happy to report that the renovation of her home is finally complete (well, almost). Daughter, Quincy, is now seven and Jack is five. As you can imagine, they keep Mike and her busy!
