

PRINCIPAL SUPERVISOR LEADERSHIP PROGRAM (PSLP)

Principal supervisors and district superintendents face complex challenges on a daily basis. Leading a variety of constituents to meet system-wide expectations while rallying school communities can be both difficult and demanding. Queens' Principal Supervisor Leadership Program (PSLP) is here to help by joining you with other dedicated supervisors in a program tailored to meet your district's specific needs.

About PSLP:

The PSLP at Queens develops the skills supervisors need to successfully grow and guide other educational leaders. Through seminars, coaching, webinars and community of practice sessions a cohort of participants achieve more in demanding leadership roles.

Participant benefits:

- ▶ Learn how to prioritize principal development, identify principals' needs and set individualized goals.
- ▶ Practice and master essential coaching skills to develop stronger leaders and empower those being supervised to achieve their goals.
- ▶ Gain the support of your learning community while sharing best leadership practices and collaborating with program colleagues.
- ▶ Discover how to create and lead a culture of accountability through group training and individual coaching.

"Supervising other leaders is a challenging, yet essential, part of my day. Queens' PSLP broke it down into manageable parts and allowed me to fully explore and learn best practices that I have used every day since"

- 2015 PSLP Participant

OVERVIEW

Number of days:

8 days

Program length:

8 - 10 months

Approaches used:

LECTURE

CLASS DISCUSSION

READING

SMALL GROUP
DISCUSSION

1-ON-1 COACHING

GROUP COACHING

ACTION LEARNING